Jury Convicts Litchfield Man in Sexual Assault of Girl

Note: A sound bite on this topic will be available shortly at: www.ago.ne.gov

(Lincoln, Neb) Attorney General Jon Bruning today announced that Charles Fieldgrove of Litchfield, Nebraska, was convicted on four counts of first degree sexual assault of a child.

“Fieldgrove chose to prey on an innocent child and now he is going to prison where he belongs.”,” Bruning said.

Evidence showed Fieldgrove, 48, began abusing his girlfriend’s daughter when she was in the fourth grade, and the abuse continued until she was in the eighth grade.

Fieldgrove was taken into custody where he will await sentencing. Each count is a Class II felony, and Fieldgrove faces a maximum of 50 years in prison for each count.

Assistant Attorney General Randy Stoll handled the case.
